About the Instructor...

N. Nigel Kojic is an award-winning artist from Yugoslavia. After leaving his homeland, Kojic moved to Germany where he took many art class, and held several exhibitions. In May 1999, he and his wife Ana moved to the US where Kojic enrolled in and completed the graphic design program at North Hennepin Community College. Nedo's artwork has been included in several exhibitions throughout the Twin Cities, and has won several awards. He has illustrated three English-Spanish high school text books. In addition to creating his own artwork, Nedo finds joy in spreading his knowledge of art to children and adults.
